File 15 - Rodriguez

Objection to Guardianship filed on 11/18/2011 by Eileen Rodriguez and Pablo Rodriguez, parents, states:

- They object to the petition for guardianship over their daughter because their daughter has been extremely rebellious over the past year and her grades have dropped dramatically; her attitude and respect level she displays to them and her siblings is atrocious;
- Alyssa (proposed ward) has run away twice in the past two months, and didn't come back the last time; they called the police who could not locate her; the school principal contacted them and stated that Alyssa reported that they abused her, but she later admitted she made a false accusation in regard to being abused;
- They (parents) had separated 5 months ago and have reconciled in the last couple of months, and during the process they realized and decided to take a different approach with Alyssa since she has been a master manipulator in the past and has been so rebellious lately;
- Petitioner (maternal grandmother) decided to reward Alyssa's destructive behavior by taking her shopping for clothes; Objector (mother) took the clothes away from Alyssa and told her when she can learn how to respect her parents and family and bring up her grades and be responsible, she may have them back; when Petitioner found out about Objector taking away the clothes, Petitioner called and threatened her that she would call Objector's work and report that she does drugs; Objector's husband (father) was demoted from his job because Petitioner has called his work so many times; he is currently on probation pending a drug test;
- Objectors are good parents and the accusations regarding drug abuse and drug use are absolutely false; they attached copies of drug tests they have taken, she (mother) by her own free will and father as required by his employer due to Petitioner constantly calling;
- Living with Petitioner is absolutely not the best place for Alyssa; allowing her to be placed with Petitioner sends the message that it is OK to run away because you do not want to follow rules.

Objectors submit five letters of character reference; a letter from Orchard Park Assisted Living and Memory Care dated 11/18/2011 stating Judi, mother of Eileen Rodriguez, has called them on 3 different occasions with the intent of reporting theft and defaming Eileen Rodriguez, and during these calls she is yelling and making accusations which have not been substantiated; and copies of drug screening results dated 11/10/2011 for Pablo Rodriguez and dated 11/15/2011 for Eileen Rodriguez indicating negative results for both persons.
